SAFEGUARDING - Important information for Residential Groups bringing Children & Vulnerable Adults to stay at Buckfast Abbey

1. Policy - Buckfast Abbey has implemented a policy for the safeguarding of children & vulnerable adults on its premises. We have done this to ensure, as far as reasonably possible, the safety of children and vulnerable people who stay at Buckfast Abbey, and to whom we owe a duty of care.

This policy can only be fulfilled with the full cooperation of visiting residential group organizers.

2. Expectations - We therefore expect and require appropriate supervision levels at all times, in accordance with DfE, Diocesan or other relevant Youth Organization's guidelines, both within the accommodation (with especial reference to domestic arrangements viz. bedrooms & washrooms), the house grounds and around the site generally.

We also require at least one adult leader from each gender being resident in the case of mixed groups, with a ratio of at least one adult for every ten children & vulnerable adults.

3. Identification - It is recommended that group leaders always carry some form of I.D. whilst on site.

Failure to comply with the above requirements may mean that we will be unable to permit your group to stay on the premises, until appropriate supervision is in place.

4. Buckfast Abbey personnel entering the building whilst you are in residence are obliged to:

- a) Ask your permission to enter the building. You have the right to defer or refuse entry, unless it is an emergency situation.
- b) Show you their identification.
- c) ask if you wish them to be accompanied by one of your leaders

d) Advise you of such a visit in advance, where at all possible.

5. Please note the following important points:

- a) We will need to have sight of a DBS certificate or access to the relevant DBS database entry for the person(s) nominated as being responsible for your group whilst on our premises (For this we require their full name, DBS number, date of birth and permission). This must be presented in advance. For non-U.K. groups, evidence will be required which must be equivalent to a DBS Certificate - such as documentary evidence from your local police. Please be aware that, whilst resident, groups from outside the U.K. are subject to English law.
- b) Failure to produce DBS documentation will mean that we will be unable to permit your group to stay on the premises until such proof is produced.
- c) We need sight of or access to the group's own Safeguarding Policy and/or guidelines
